LAPADA Art & Antiques Fair partners with Gusbourne

LAPADA is pleased to announce multi-award winning Gusbourne as the English Sparkling Wine partner for the 2017 LAPADA Art & Antiques Fair. Complementing the LAPADA Fair's celebration of time-honoured craftsmanship and British heritage, Gusbourne Blanc de Blancs, which is regularly enjoyed at Buckingham Palace, will be served at the Private Preview and their full range of English Sparkling Wine will then be available throughout the week in the brasserie.

Based in Appledore, Kent, the original Estate dates back to 1410. However, it wasn't until Andrew Weeber planted the first vines in 2004 that it started producing wine. The vision for Gusbourne was clear: to create English Sparkling Wines that could stand alongside the very finest offerings from across the globe. Thirteen years later, Gusbourne supplies wines for leading restaurants such as The Fat Duck, Manoir Aux Quat'Saisons and La Gavroche and are stocked in Berry Berry Bros & Rudd, Selfridges, Harvey Nichols and Fortnum & Mason.

Speaking of the partnership, Gusbourne winemaker and CEO, Charlie Holland said "I think this new relationship with LAPADA is a very exciting one for Gusbourne. As recognised leaders in our respective fields, LAPADA members and Gusbourne represent the pinnacle of their industry, channeling traditional expertise into timeless experiences appropriate for contemporary audiences."

Mieka Sywak, LAPADA Fair Director, commented: "Each year the LAPADA Fair aims to find new ways to surprise and delight our visitors and guests, and we are honoured to be the first international event serving Gusbourne Blanc de Blancs, to celebrate the opening of the Fair. With Berkeley Square being located at the centre of the UK's art and antiques market, it felt natural to celebrate with the very highest quality English Sparkling Wine as a wonderful opportunity to showcase this notable and exceptional vineyard."

The LAPADA Art & Antiques Fair will return to Berkeley Square for its ninth edition from Friday 15th September to Wednesday 20th September 2017. Situated in the heart of Mayfair, the Fair is the leading destination for international collectors and buyers looking to source one-of-a-kind objects. Over 100 prominent specialists will be brought together to offer works in a broad variety of disciplines including the decorative arts, furniture, fine art and jewellery from antiquity to the present day.
